

Reason for Truth Ministry is uniquely equipped to reach our rapidly changing world with the truth and love of Jesus Christ. After writing the forward for Reason for Truth founder Steven Garofalo's book, EQUIPPED, I was impressed with his heart and mind, as he was able to skillfully communicate the truth of God with both Christian and non-Christians alike. Reason for Truth is equipping the body of Christ to give both a defense of the Christian faith and an offense (game plan) to spread the Gospel throughout the world using the Bible, theology, and apologetics. Steven's vision is to simplify the complex, inoculate today's youth, and equip the body of Christ. I believe that God has raised up Reason for Truth for this time in history – a time when the concept of absolute truth is under attack, resulting in an attack on God and Christianity. I stand with Steven Garofalo and endorse Reason for Truth.
