Behavior Contract

Expectations

1. Follow the Staff's directions
2. Always stay with the teacher.
3. Keep your hands, feet and other objects to yourself.
4. Speak when you are spoken to.

Most preschool children are able to understand the concept of rules and can control their behavior accordingly. Young children may not be fully aware of the long-term implications of their behavior, there is evidence that they have a basic understanding of the impact of their behavior on others and can control their behavior on the basis of internalized social norms.

Noncompliant, destructive, temper tantrums and aggressive behavior will result in the following consequences:

Consequences

Depending on the severity of the situation or if the behavior persists, one or more of the following consequences will be taken.

1. Teachers will discuss the behavior with the child.
2. The child will be given a "time-out" or not allowed to participate in an activity.
3. Teachers will discuss the behavior with the parent/guardian.
4. The director will meet with the teacher and parent/guardian.
5. The child will be sent home immediately or told that he/she will not be allowed to come on his/her next school day.
6. Parent will be told that they need to find a different preschool that meets the needs of their child.

Note: There are no refunds when a child's own behavior requests that he/she be sent home.

I have read and understand the Behavior Contract and I have discussed it with my child in a manner that he/she can understand.
