A NOTE FROM PASTOR BRANDON

We are human, and our default setting is to focus on what we can see and touch—the tangible world around us. Yet, following Jesus's teachings often calls us to defy our natural instincts and embrace a path that isn't always easy or comfortable. It demands a choice: do we build our lives on the shifting sands of worldly pursuits, or on Jesus, the eternal foundation that will forever stand strong?

This sermon explores the vital truth that our faith rests not on a "what"—not on circumstances, possessions, or even a set of rules—but on a Whom: Jesus Christ, the solid Rock. When we anchor our hope in Him and pursue the things of the Spirit, we gain a lasting resilience and purpose that the temporary things of this world can never provide. Join us as we learn to lift our eyes to the unseen, fix our gaze on the Savior, and build a life that is truly unshakable.
