A NOTE FROM PASTOR BRANDON

Happy New Year! You may have your personal New Year's resolutions, but God's goal and purpose is the same that it has always been. He is passionately pursuing you. Our God, creator of the heavens and the earth, and the savior of our souls is wanting you to draw into a deeper relationship with Him. This week we will look at Jesus' mission and how He is still at work in you. Get ready for this year, because the key word is "pursuit."

After the first meeting, those who are joining the study will have an option of two study times: 4:00 PM (no childcare available), or 6:00 PM, with childcare. Having two class times allows the option of being in one class, but the ability to attend the other, if you have a time conflict on a particular Wednesday.

Part II opens with John 12:12 and continues through Chapter 19, as Jesus prepares the people and His disciples for His death on the cross. This will be an exciting series of lessons that coincide with the Church Calendar.
