A NOTE FROM PASTOR BRANDON

I hope you wore red today! It's Pentecost Sunday, a day when we celebrate the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Christian church. This week, we come to the final section of the Apostles' Creed. It's a great reminder that God is still powerfully at work in the Church today.

"How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!" We are thrilled to bring our congregation together for a combined service of praise, prayer and community. Every fifth Sunday of the month we blend our favorite elements of worship into one powerful morning. Whether you usually attend the Traditional 8:00 AM service or Contemporary 10:30 service, this is our chance to connect as one body. Don't forget to stay after the benediction to connect with someone new out on The Plaza! We look forward to seeing you there!

STITCH N GIVE — QUILT TYING

Wednesday | May 27 | 9:00 AM | Fireside Room

Stitch N' Give will meet in the Fireside Room this week to tie quilts for Lutheran World Relief. Our quilts go around the world to help people who are suffering from war, disasters, violence or hunger. LWR also distributes quilts within the United States when needed. Tying the knots is easy, we will show you how, and we always welcome newcomers! Bring a sewing kit with a large eyed, sharp needle, a thimble if you use one and a small pair of scissors. Or, you can use our supplies. We will continue to meet during the summer on the third Wednesday of each month. Hope to see you there! Contact Kay Lautenschlager.
