FAMILY NEWS

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2018

Not long after I woke up Thursday morning, I received both a phone call and a text, which thrilled my heart and caused me to pause and praise God. Three men who are living at the Mission of Mercy home were baptized into Christ Wednesday night after their Bible study there. Isn't that wonderful news? I wish each of you could have read the comments that were made on our group text. Brothers and sisters here said, "Thank you Lord for inviting them into your family...May our Lord continue to open the eyes of their hearts and fill each of them with an overwhelming joy...Sharing God's message with these men is a great opportunity and so exciting for us all"! I am so grateful that there are Cross Point members who are excited about sharing God's message in open-door fields that are white and ready for harvest. Let's all pray for the eyes of our hearts to be enlightened and to see the opportunities around us to seek the lost and share Jesus with them.

After I heard that good news, I got a phone call from a brother who shared some great news about a well-deserved honor that his grandson had just received; and I was excited to share in their joy. This grandfather and grandmother, because of their tremendous love, have faithfully poured their lives into helping their grandson overcome challenges. When I commended our brother for what they have done, his response humbled me. He said, "We just made ourselves available." Isn't that a great line, and a great way to live? Let's all follow their example and make ourselves available to be used by our God. If we will do that, there is no doubt in my mind that our God will bless us, and others will be blessed as a result!

Summer and I will be out of town with our family this weekend; we always miss you when we are away. Brother Ken Delano will bless you by proclaiming the Word this morning. Can't wait to see you soon. In Him - Frank
