FROM THE PASTOR

School is back in session, preparations for harvest are underway, and Friday nights will be illumined by football fields both near and far. I am looking forward to the start of another year of JAM (Jesus and Me). Ludustia and her team of volunteers have been busy getting ready to share the love of Jesus with the many students who will come through our church doors. Please pray that God will use them mightily for His Kingdom purposes this year. I was also excited to see several area churches gather for the High Plains Youth Revival. Thank you, Jordan, for your willingness to partner with other Baptist churches to strengthen each other's ministries. I think it is great to see this Baptist tenet, the spirit of cooperation, alive and well among the next generation of believers. There are a couple of things I would also like to bring to your attention that are coming up this month. First, on September 21st at 6:00 pm, we will host the West Texas Cohort of Singing Women. It will be a night you do not want to miss. Second, the annual See You at the Pole event will take place on September 24th. If you have a middle school, junior high, or high school student, please encourage them to participate in this event as they stand for their faith and lift our schools in prayer. If you do not, please set apart a moment on that day to lift our schools, students of faith, and their teachers so that they may boldly proclaim the name of Jesus to the next generation. As we return to the rhythm of school and church ministries, it is a good time to reestablish a rhythm of spiritual formation in your own life. Make it a priority to spend time in the Word each day, to pray for the needs of others and the mission of Christ in this world, and to take a moment to reflect on how God is working in your life at this moment and in this season. Plan to be at church to worship, pray, and celebrate life with a community of believers. We are not perfect people, but we are people who God perfectly loves.

School has started once again and we have started our Wednesday Night bible study called IMPACT. We have been having lots of fun on Wednesday nights with games, worship, sermons, and small groups. We have been going over our identity in Christ and have been looking at how to receive the gift of identity from God.

We have also had an amazing Back to School Revival with close to 300 students and leaders from all over the Caprock and Lubbock Associations meet at FBC Floydada. We had a great band, headed up by Evan Mickens, youth minister at FBC Crosbyton, lead us in worship and Brandon Mailey from FBC Brownfield brought the message for the night. It is truly amazing how God works because we could see that He revived the spirits of the youth and the leaders on this great night.

Looking into the future we will be having Fifth Quarters at the church on 8/29; 9/19; 10/24; and 10/31. We will be having pancakes and sausage and having time to play basketball, volleyball, or some video games.

It has been a GREAT month at FBC Floydada IMPACT Youth and we are just getting started.

J.A.M. (Jesus and Me!) As of the writing of this newsletter, we have 64 kids registered for J.A.M.! We still have room for a few more 1st and 4th graders. I'm always ready for the next chapter in children's ministry! We've had a busy summer, and now it's time to get into our Fall routine! J.A.M. begins September 10.

Dates to put in your calendar:

September 7: First Sunday Sandwich Social (Canned drinks will be sold for $1 to benefit the playground fundraiser.)

September 7: Bible Drill begins

October 5: Playground Fundraiser meal following the morning service. $10 suggested donation for baked spaghetti meal followed by a dessert auction.

October 26: Operation Christmas Child shoebox packing party 4:30pm

October 29: Fall Fest

You know you're in Kids Ministry when....you attend at least one frog funeral at Boy's Camp!
(It's a funny story....)

Thank you for supporting the Children's Ministry!
