

LESSON 4

Dear Parents,

Well, we've finally finished our four-week look at what Jesus had to say about forgiveness. It's been a really powerful time of Bible study. The teenagers have really been challenged.

This week, the lesson was entitled "Forgive Like The Forgiver," and it focused on helping students understand that as children of God, their identities as forgivers is wrapped up in God's identity as their Father. We challenged students to embrace a life that seeks to show love, kindness, and forgiveness to all people, especially those who are most undeserving of it.

We looked at the following Scripture passages:

- Luke 6:27-37

When you get the chance, maybe take a moment to read this Scripture passage to stay in touch with what your teenager is learning.

Next Steps . . .

During the next week as you have time to talk with your teen, consider asking the following questions:

- What was the one thing that you remember from your Bible study time. Why did it stand out to you as it did?
- What does it mean to you that God sees you as one of His children and He as your Father?
- Do you ever think of how you represent our family when you're out in public? Do you see the parallel to how you represent God in the world?

THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU DO. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT ANYTHING, PLEASE DON'T HESITATE TO CALL ME.
