Gathering Song: “This Is the Day That the Lord Has Made”

“This is the day, this is the day,
That the Lord has made, that the Lord has made.
I will rejoice, I will rejoice
And be glad in it, and be glad in it.
This is the day that the Lord has made,
I will rejoice and be glad in it.
This is the day, this is the day that the Lord has made.”

Going Song: “Jesus Loves Me”

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen."

Offering Anthem

"Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee"

Benjamin Lane

Leeann Berry, flute

"Jesus, the very thought of thee, with sweetness fills my breast,
But sweeter far thy face to see, and in thy presence rest.

No voice can sing, no heart can frame, nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Jesus' name, the savior of mankind.

O hope of every contrite heart, O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall how kind thou art, how good to those who seek.

But what to those who find? Ah this nor tongue nor pen can show.
The love of Jesus what it is, none but his loved ones know.

Jesus, our only joy be thou, as thou our prize wilt be.
In thee be all our glory now, and through eternity."

*Doxology and Prayer of Dedication

"Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost! Amen."

*Affirmation of Faith

Confession of Belhar 10.5b

We believe that the church is called to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, that the church is called blessed because it is a peacemaker, that the church is witness both by word and by deed to the new heaven and the new earth in which righteousness dwells.

Special Music

"Even When He Is Silent"

Kim Andre Arnesen (b. 1980)

Text by an anonymous concentration camp prisoner

"I believe in the sun, even when it's not shining

I believe in love, even when I feel it not.

I believe in God, even when he is silent"

Second Scripture Reading (p. 1190)

Matthew 14:22-33

Message

"I Love to Tell the Stories"

John Randolph

Hymn of Dedication

“I Love to Tell the Story”

Hankey

“I love to tell the story of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory, of Jesus and his love.
I love to tell the story, because I know 'tis true;
It satisfies my longings as nothing else could do.
I love to tell the story; 'twill be my theme in glory
To tell the old, old story of Jesus and his love.

I love to tell the story; 'tis pleasant to repeat
What seems, each time I tell it, more wonderfully sweet!
I love to tell the story, for some have never heard
The message of salvation from God's own holy word.
I love to tell the story; 'twill be my theme in glory
To tell the old, old story of Jesus and his love.

I love to tell the story; for those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting to hear it, like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song,
'Twill be the old, old story that I have loved so long.
I love to tell the story; 'twill be my theme in glory
To tell the old, old story of Jesus and his love.”

Benediction

Postlude

“Trumpet Tune”

M. Helfman

*The congregation is invited to stand, if you are able.

The Church Bell is rung in loving memory of Jonathan (1907 – 1987) and Mildred (1913 – 1994) Thorne. Prior to Sunday morning worship, the bell from our original Sanctuary is rung in memory of those interred in our Memorial Garden. Let us pause to give thanks for all who have gone before us, who rest in the peace of God, thanking God for the Christian witness of their lives.

The flowers that beautify the Chancel this morning are given by the Earnhart family, in loving memory of wife, mother, and grandmother, Nancy Earnhart.

Today we celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism for Joseph Matthew DeStefano, son of Jake and Brittany DeStefano.

Preaching this morning is John Randolph. Known to his friends as Skip, John comes to us from the Royal Poinciana Chapel in Palm Beach, Florida, where he served as a member of the Board of Directors and as President of the Board of Directors. Skip is an ordained Elder in the Presbyterian Church and is a practicing attorney. He has maintained a long time interest in preaching and in ministry and has taken courses in theology and spiritual formation at Columbia Theological Seminary.

Dr. Hood and his wife, Grace, are on vacation this week.

Notes About Today's Music

"Even When He Is Silent" was written by contemporary Norwegian composer, Kim Andre Arnesen. The three lines of text were found on the wall of a German concentration camp, written by a prisoner who did not survive the horrors of Hitler's demonic hate. The piece is a sublime statement of hope and faith. Even though unable to see the sun, has no one to love, and cannot hear God, this prisoner still had faith.

On the lighter side, many people say the music world is a small world. I got a message from today's flutist, the day after Easter. She told me she was a professional flutist, lives in the area, liked the music at church, and would gladly play when needed. She then told me she knew Dean Peterson, when she and Dean toured with Diane Bish in Europe. She said Dean would know her as "Libby". I said I knew a flutist by the name of Libby Bauer, she replied "that's me." Libby and I played in festival high school bands and youth orchestras way back in the late '70's. She cannot believe I remembered her, I told her I never forget good musicians.

Our Endowment and Remembrance Funds are two excellent opportunities for your giving consideration, be it your will, stocks, or as a named beneficiary to an insurance policy. This financially wise method of stewardship helps ensure the long-term financial stability of the church and provides a planned means for the church to continue its role in the lives of our members and those to whom we reach out, in our community and beyond. For more information on long-term giving, call the church office (561-276-6338).

On December 18, 2015, the President signed legislation indefinitely extending the charitable IRA rollover provision enabling IRA owners ages 70½ or older to make a direct, tax-free transfer to First Presbyterian Church of Delray Beach or the charity of their choice. Figuring Out God's Will

READ: Romans 12:2 (Common English Bible)

“Don't be conformed to the patterns of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds so that you can figure out what God's will is – what is good and pleasing and mature.”

REFLECT:

Antoine de Saint-Exupery wisely said, “A goal without a plan is just a wish.” It is ludicrous to suggest that any follower of Jesus lacks the goal of spiritual growth; lacks the desire to become more Christlike than they are presently. Adult baptism and membership in a church are intentional decisions. No one stumbles into the Christian faith. And ask anyone seated in church on Sunday morning if they would like to be a better Christian and I doubt there will be any surprises. There is really only one reasonable answer. Ask that question and I imagine you may receive some strange looks. Common courtesy may prevent an honest answer but stirring in the minds of many would be the curt response, “Do you know the trouble I had this morning to simply show-up at church?” No one stumbles into the Christian faith. And no one stumbles into Christian worship. Naturally, every follower of Jesus has the goal of spiritual maturity.

The difficulty is that in many faith communities, in many churches, there is so little evidence of Christian growth. Listen carefully to many church members and they sound no different than those who remain outside the church doors. Gossip abounds, grumbling is heard and self-righteous judgement is whispered in every pew. Perhaps each person guilty of such bad behavior desires to be better than this but there is simply no movement in that direction. The reason should haunt each of us. We lack an intentional plan for growth. Antoine de Saint-Exupery is correct, without a plan, the desire for becoming increasingly Christlike is nothing more than a wish. Worse, without a plan for growth, says Paul, the natural consequence is conformity to the patterns of the world.

If a wish is ever to become a goal, a plan is required. Weight Watchers offers a plan if the goal is to lose weight. Fitness Centers offer a plan if the goal is improved fitness and health. Language video and audio programs may be purchased if the goal is learning a new language. Any goal must be translated into a plan or it simply remains a wish. The same principal applies to spiritual growth. The plan need not be difficult or complex. In fact, the likelihood that a plan will be placed into action increases if it is simple to understand and follow.

Paul's words here offer a glorious promise. Identify a spiritual growth plan, remove it from the box and implement it fully and the result will be growing clarity of God's will. Some people despair because God's will is often difficult to know. Many times that is because they expect clarity without effort, without following an intentional plan for growth. The trouble is that God's will for our lives is always inextricably bound to a growing relationship with God. It is never one or the other. Pursue an ongoing relationship with God and God's desires will become apparent.

Hospitalization

If you or a family member are hospitalized, please notify the church office (561-276-6338). Even if you give the name of the church upon admission, the hospital will not notify us.
