

TRIP FAQ'S

Where exactly are students going?

We're heading to Green Lake Conference Center which is a Christian ministry with over 900 scenic acres on the shores of Green Lake in Wisconsin. GLCC ministers to thousands of people each year through conferences, camps, training events, retreats, etc. To learn more, go to glcc.org.

What's included in the registration fee?

Transportation, lodging, meals, fun activities, and a trip t-shirt!

Do students need extra cash?

Yes. Students will need cash for meals while traveling on Sunday and Friday. They may also opt to bring cash to spend at the country store, gift store, craft center, or the beach snack shack.

Can students bring friends?

Yes! This trip is a great opportunity to reach out to students who do not attend SouthField!

What is housing like?

Boys and girls are housed in separate dorms. It's not fancy, but we're not there to stay in our rooms!

Where do students eat?

Students eat most meals in the dining hall with the exception of our annual excursion to Christiano's Pizza.

When do students leave for Green Lake?

Students will leave from SouthField on Sunday, June 3. Students must check-in for the trip by 2pm.

When do students return home?

Students will arrive home no later than 4pm on Friday afternoon, June 8.

What should students bring?

Pillow, Bible, notebook, grungy work clothes, one pair of warm clothes, work gloves, tall socks, tennis shoes, modest swimwear, sunglasses, sunscreen, beach towel, shower towel, toiletries, spending money, and a flexible, inclusive spirit.

What items should be left home?

Gaming devices, weapons, your grandma, and bad attitudes.

What kinds of fun activities are there?

Swimming, paddle boards, kayaks, canoes, paddle boats, jet skis, sand volleyball, basketball, hiking, gaga ball, zorb ball, and more. Seriously, you just need to come to find out the rest!

What kinds of work do students do?

Landscaping, painting, cleaning, moving stuff, etc.

What about scholarships?

If you would like to donate funds for a scholarship or are in need of financial assistance, contact Brian Papp at brian@southfieldchurch.com.
