This ends the chronological reading of the Bible that we began together in January of 2018.

The remainder of this year, we will be reading various selections from the Old and New Testaments following the order set out in the following columns.

In September, we will focus on the Parables told by Jesus as recorded from the viewpoints of each Gospel writer.

In October, we will read through the Book of Proverbs – one chapter each day.

In November, we will spend 30 days in the Psalms. Each day will have several readings based on a single theme.

In December, we will have a special time of Advent readings as we move through Advent. There is also an extra reading for each Sunday in Advent. The final week of the year, we will learn what the Bible has to say about forgiveness.

December – Forgiveness

Forgiveness can be difficult. In our day-to-day life, people will do or say things that offend us. Rather than hold a grudge, the Bible teaches us to forgive them. In scripture, we can find encouraging and inspiring verses that encourage us to be forgiving.
