Then the LORD God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of us in knowing good and evil. Now, lest he reach out his hand and take also of the tree of life and eat, and live forever—" 23 therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken.

Family Time: "The Fall"
Genesis 3

Big Truth

Sin entered the world, but God promised a Redeemer who would defeat the serpent and rescue His people.

Talk about it:

Genesis 3 is not only a story about how things went wrong. It is also the beginning of the story of how God would make things right.

Read Together:

Read Genesis 3 together.

If your child is younger, read slowly and stop to ask:

- What did God tell Adam and Eve not to do?
- Who tempted Eve to disobey God?
- Who did God promise would defeat the snake?
- What was the cause of Adam and Eve's sin?
- How does sin affect every person?
- What is God promising in Genesis 3:15?
- How does Jesus fulfill this promise?

Family Activity

Crush the Serpent!

Draw a snake on a piece of paper. Let your child crumple or stomp on it while saying, "Jesus defeats sin and Satan!" Talk about how Genesis 3:15 promised that the serpent would one day be crushed—and how Jesus fulfills that promise.
