

UUCCN IS SEEKING A RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TEACHER

The Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Central Nassau, located at 223 Stewart Avenue in Garden City, is looking for a teacher for our Religious Education program. Our program is part-time and held on most Sunday mornings at 11 am (based on school vacation schedules).

We are a small, welcoming congregation, eager to share our values with our children and grow our program.

If you are interested in teaching the values of justice, equity, and interdependence, to name a few, this is an opportunity to support our faith community.

Please visit our website at <http://www.uccn.org> to learn more about our congregation and <http://www.uua.org> to learn more about Unitarian Universalism.

Please contact Maria Sutton at uccn@aol.com with any questions about the position or the application process.

You do not have to be a Unitarian Universalist to be considered for the position.
