A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

"Where Everybody Is Somebody & CHRIST Is The CENTER Of Attraction"

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

As we enter the beautiful season of Fall, I wanted to take a moment to share some reflections and encouragements with all of you. The Fall season is often associated with change - the changing colors of the leaves, the cooler temperatures, and the shifting rhythms of life. It is a time of transition and preparation for what lies ahead. Just as nature transforms during this season, let us also allow ourselves to be transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit.

During this time, I want to invite each one of you to reflect on the Kingdom priorities that should characterize our lives as followers of Christ. Let us strive to seek after righteousness, love, compassion, and forgiveness. We should examine our relationships, commitments, and possessions, ensuring that they align with these Kingdom values.

As we embark on this journey of clearing the clutter from our lives, let us remember that it is not only about physical organization but also about spiritual liberation. Through the power of the Holy Spirit and our willingness to let go, we can experience a deeper level of freedom, joy, and intimacy with God.

I encourage each one of you to continually evaluate your lives and surrender all that hinders your walk with Him. Together, let us strive for a clutter-free existence, allowing the Holy Spirit to reshape us into vessels of His glory.

Remember the words of Matthew 6:33, "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." This verse reminds us of the importance of aligning our priorities with God's Kingdom and seeking after righteousness. Let us hold onto this promise as we navigate the fall season and beyond.

As we move throughout this season, I am excited for the many things we have going on at the church. From the Youth Fall Festival Celebration Thanksgiving Day Worship, One Night Revival with Bishop Robert Rudolph, and New Year's Eve Watch Night Service, this will be an exciting Fall Season. Thank you for your commitment and support. Together we can impact our neighborhood and community.

In His Service,

Pastor Demetrius A. Chester
