Thank You

Dear Sweetwater Family, It is very hard to put into words how thankful we are for the blessing we received by serving you for the last 10 1/2 years. It has been a privilege and joy to serve you. Thank you for your kindness, love, appreciation, and gifts of love at our going away reception. We thank God for allowing us to have this season in your path. May God continue to bless Sweetwater, and may he continue to help us all live lives that point people to Jesus! With love, Mark, Alyson, and Noah

The Women's Ministry would love for you to join us this year for our Ladies Tea, on Saturday, April 25th, 10-12.

We will be blessed by singing from Beverly Simpson, accompanied by John Dickenson. And a time of prayer and testimony from Norma McCarthy's cousin, Jorie Crutchfield, who will share a glimpse of God's Glory through tragedies and triumphs. And of course fellowship, prayer, refreshments and tea!

Jorie Crutchfield

Sign up in your Sunday School Class or in the Lobby of the Worship Center!

Our ladies tea event, Pearls of Wisdom, is in its 7th year. This tea event came about as a time for the women of Sweetwater to gather in a time of fellowship, refreshment, prayer, testimonies and music. At the very first tea, we had everyone share their "pearl of wisdom," this was their favorite Bible verse, anything that they clung to that drew them closer to the Lord. We have remained true to the tea's origin, having a time of fellowship, prayer, refreshment, testimony, music and of course tea!

We begin this event with asking for Hostesses, to decorate and invite friends to this event. We have them decorate their tables with their personal tea sets and table settings. We have had many beautiful settings from elegant settings to Easter themes, a beautiful purple theme and even an ocean/beach theme! We set up and decorate on the Friday afternoon before the event Saturday morning.
