

JESUS FOR EVERYONE
A Study in the Gospel of Luke
Pastor Ron Swor – 1.24.21
Luke 5:27-39

God uses many different people to build His kingdom.

1 Corinthians 1:26-27

Jesus sees not who we are now, but what we will become.

Luke 5:27-39

The Jewish view of eating together was about intimacy – becoming one with a person.

Revelation 3:20

Why did Matthew throw a party for Jesus?

- To introduce his friends to Jesus.
- He is leaving the lifestyle of a tax collector.
- He is going to follow Jesus.

Ephesians 2:1-2

The Gospel is not for those who think they are good, but for those who know they are bad.

The three pillars of Judaism: prayer, almsgiving, fasting

- Fasting reminds us that we can go without.
- Fasting connects us to those who have very little.
- Fasting helps us remember the sacrifice of Jesus.
