Romans 1:18-32

Romans 1:18-32

In this passage, Paul answers three questions about the “Wrath of God.”

What is the “Wrath of God?”

“God is never neutral when it comes to sin!”

Paul tells us that the wrath of God is firm, tempered with a perfect hostility toward all evil.

Why is the wrath of God necessary?

- for suppressing God’s truth
- for ignoring God’s revelation
- for perverting God’s glory

How is God’s wrath revealed?

- a last day reckoning (1 Thessalonians 1:10; Romans 2:5)
- a judicial system of law (Romans 13:4)
- a consequence of your own desires (vv.24, 26, 28)
