8.9.20 - Pastor Mark Smith

1 Peter 3:18-22

The Grand Gospel

The majesty, mystery and magnitude of the Grand Canyon. Likewise, the gospel can amaze us when we see it from a new perspective!

1 Peter 3:18-22

Put To Death

Made Alive

Christ Reigns

Martin Luther 1483-1546: "A wonderful text is this, and more obscure passage than any other in the New Testaments, so that I don't know for certain just what it means"

Conclusion: Jesus is our hope. He is the one who has victory, we can rest in the fact that Jesus has already won the battle. He is our example and our comforter in our suffering.

Digging deeper

Do you think of the gospel in terms of a past event that happened to you at the time of salvation or is the gospel alive and active in, you, today?

What does the gospel mean to you today?

What does the daily practice of preaching the good news of the gospel to yourself look like?

In our current political climate how might the gospel unite us?
