Romans 15-16 | CONCLUSION

When we think about the book of Romans we usually think of it as a doctrinal book; but Paul concludes his letter in chapters 14-16 in a very practical and relational way.

Romans 15:1-7

In these 7 verses Paul shows us how to move from being selfish to being selfless.

- Practice active patience with others. (vv. 1-2)
- Practice modeling the life of Jesus. (v. 3))
- Practice studying God's Word. (v. 4)
- Practice living in harmony with others. (vv. 5-7)

Paul finishes his letter to the Romans in chapter 16 by mentioning his friends and co-laborers in Christ.
