WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?
Pastor Ron Swor – 10.1.23

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." – Genesis 1:1

You and I have been created distinct and above the rest of creation.

Genesis 1:24-27

Genesis 1:28-31

It's from this passage of Scripture that we get the phrase, "imago Dei," in "the image of God."

What are the image-of-God differences from other created beings?

1. The ability to seek and understand the creator (God)
2. The ability to relate to God's creation
3. The ability to have relationships with other humans

What are some important implications of being created in God's image?

1. Our intrinsic value/human dignity
2. Laws that protect human life
3. The value and equality of genders
