A Rector announced for the Church of the Holy Trinity, Syracuse, NY.

Grace and Peace to you in the name of our risen Savior!

I am pleased to announce that the Church of the Holy Trinity in Syracuse, New York has concluded its search for a Rector and has called the Reverend Ifeoluwa Ojetayo as its new Rector. It was my great privilege to grant my approval and consent to their selection.

Many within the diocese are familiar with Rev. Ife's ministry as a pastoral assistant to the Reverend Matthew Kennedy at Church of the Good Shepherd in Binghamton, New York. Ife will commence with his Master of Divinity from Westminster Theological Seminary next month and will be installed at Holy Trinity, Syracuse later this Summer.

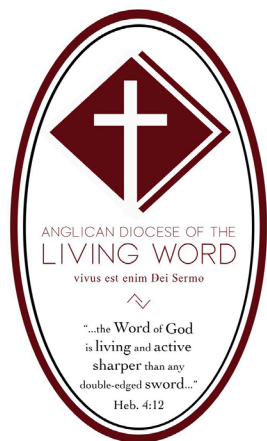

Ife and his wife Lisa were married eight years ago and they are the proud parents of four sons. The couple eagerly anticipate the opportunity to minister to the members of the Church of the Holy Trinity and to share the Gospel of our Lord to the greater Syracuse region.

I invite you to pray this prayer for the Reverend Ifeoluwa Ojetayo and the Church of the Holy Trinity:

“Almighty and everlasting God, you govern all things in heaven and on earth: Mercifully hear our prayers, and grant that in the Church of the Holy Trinity the pure Word of God may be preached and the Sacraments duly administered. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; protect and guide the children; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; arouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; remove all hindrances to the advancement of your truth; and bring us all to be of one heart and mind within your holy Church, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.”
