

Lay Nominations (Vacancy: 1)

Mr. Jason Carlton

Mr. Jason Carlton is an active member of The Anglican Church of the Good Shepherd in Binghamton, New York where he is on the vestry and has held the position of Senior and Junior Warden. He has served on the Binghamton Salvation Army Advisory Board, as a board member and secretary/Chief Information Officer for Vestal Little League, among many other community services roles in his city. Mr. Carlton is a partner at the law firm of Gitto & Niefer. He was selected as Super Lawyers for 2022 in the areas of Appellate Law and Workers' Compensation. From 2023-2022 he was the President of the Broome County Bar Association and is currently serving as chairperson. Mr. Carlton and his lovely wife, Karen, share three sons.

Mr. George Owad

Mr. George Owad attends Church of the Resurrection in Halfmoon, New York where he serves on the vestry. Mr. Owad is a retired New York Government worker, retired volunteer firefighter, EMT, Fire Commissioner, and an US Army Veteran. He is currently serving on his church's committee for finding a permanent worship space. Mr. Owad's greatest joy and pleasure is being part of a special mission outreach located in an apartment building that caters to senior citizens. This ministry focuses on providing worship services to people who are unable to attend their own churches. COVID forced the ministry to utilize email and mail to keep their small, faithful group together. Currently Mr. Owad and his wife, Barbaraann still minister to this group on Sundays after attending their regular Sunday Service at Church of the Resurrection. The Owads have 4 children and love to spoil their 10 grandchildren.
