Notes

GUEST SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Reeder lives near Seattle, WA and spent 15 years of ministry in Central Asia. With teammates, she helped women start or grow small businesses and sometimes had opportunities to discuss hope, faith and prayer. In recent years, she educates people about interfaith and cross-cultural relationships and how to address the root causes of poverty. She has a doctorate of intercultural studies, likes choral music and hiking, and wants to revive her advanced beginning knitting skills. Dr. Reeder coaches and accompanies Christians in caring, whole-person welcome of Muslims (refugees) while reducing struggles and ineffectiveness that may occur.
