BRINGING HOPE TO FAMILIES IN KNIGHTDALE

GPBC

FOOD

PANTRY

GPBC started a Food Pantry in 2011 as a service for local families in need. The main focus of this outreach is to provide physical nourishment while sharing the Gospel, inviting the people we serve to church, and praying for their families.

A new Bible study ministry with Food Pantry women participants has begun to meet on the fourth Saturday of the month at 10:00 am in the choir room. Carol Ross is leading this class. We are filled with joy as this new ministry has come to life on the request of the Food Pantry participants.

If you would like to volunteer please contact Carol-Lynn Swicegood at cswicegood@nc.rr.com

Donations are always welcome!

If you have your own instrument, any musical accompaniment would be appreciated. Carillon is only 1.9 miles down Hodge Rd. from the church.
