NC BAPTIST MEN OFFERING

Today we are collecting money to go toward the NC Baptist Men (aka Baptists on Mission) Hurricane Harvey disaster relief efforts. Please fill out an envelope in your pew with your name, amount, and notate NC Baptist Men. You may also donate online at <http://baptistsonmission.org/Missions/By-Type/Disaster-Relief/Hurricane-Harvey>. NC Baptist Disaster Relief is assisting in Hurricane Harvey response and recovery. Mobile kitchens, shower units, laundry units, bunk units, generators and more are being utilized as needed. Pray for those affected. Please pray for the volunteers who are helping in a great time of need.

SCHOOL DONATIONS NEEDED

Hodge Road Magnet Elementary School needs donations for their Before & After Care. They need gently used board games, legos, balls, sand box toys, puzzles, sidewalk chalk, coloring books, markers and coloring pencils. Please place your donated items in the large box in the foyer.

WELCOME OUR NEW PIANIST

Jean Tezil is from Haiti and was born in a Christian family where his father served as a minister in a small but lively community in a locality called Carrefour. Keren is Jean's wife since 2003 and was also born in a Christian family where her father ministered in that same area as a theological and academic teacher. Jean and Keren have 2 beautiful children Dave and Kayla, who are 12 and 10. The family lived in Florida for a few years and moved to North Carolina in January 2017 due to a career change. Jean had the opportunity in Florida to serve many Christian communities with his musical skills, such as Northwood United Methodist and Bethlehem Baptist Church. Jean and his wife love Christ and desire to express this love through their service within their community, and through raising their children under His wonderful grace.
