SERMON NOTES

Theme: Priceless: The Priceless Love

Date: 7/30/17

1) We are all longing for love that is fully accepting, unconditional, and unending.

a) We choose to marry in hopes of a love that fully accepts us and is unconditional and that will never end.

b) God's unfailing love is priceless because it never fails, never falters, never comes up short, never ends.

2) Life in Christ isn't about finding the problem-free life but living in the assurance of God's priceless love.

a) Regardless of where you may find yourself today or in the future, you can be assured that the priceless love of God will never leave you or fail you.

b) God's love is priceless because it goes ahead of us, follows us, holds us up, and never fails us.

3) Life in Christ isn't just about experiencing God's priceless love, but also extending God's unfailing love to others.
