It's pretty well known among our worship ministry folks that I don't listen to Christmas music or start watching Christmas movies before the day after Thanksgiving. It's a thing with me. I don't know why. I mean there are people who actually start decorating their houses for Christmas BEFORE Thanksgiving. Get help, people.

HOWEVER, I do work on Christmas music for the church far earlier in the year, shaping our Christmas weeks and concerts, trying to create a whole series of Sundays that work well together, help us worship, point to Jesus, and make the most of music we don't sing any other time of year.

And then.... it begins.

Around Thanksgiving time, just before and all the way to Christmas, schedules get crazy, and rehearsals get long and intense. Don't get me wrong. We work hard over those weeks, but we have tons of fun while doing it. And we do it knowing that our Behold The Lamb Of God tradition is something special.

As for me, that's also when I go full throttle on Christmas. The Christmas movies start on the TV. The Christmas music begins to fill the air. The tree and decorations go up. The parties and gatherings pile up. The hustle and bustle of the season, they call it.

And I can't wait!

Eyes up,
david
