December has a different kind of pace for worship ministry people. It's fast and constant from Thanksgiving all the way to Christmas. And I love it.

Behold The Lamb Of God is our big music event here at Lincoln Avenue this season. This year we present on Sunday, December 21 at 9AM and 6PM. Rehearsals take up the entire month, long rehearsals with everybody present. They are huge, but they are loads of fun. Remember to come get those invitation cards for this event and spread the word about this LABC tradition we love to share.

We enjoy the Christmas worship music we only play this time of year. There are also the parties, fellowships, activities, and other things scattered through the month. Things that are great and encouraging and entertaining and fun. So many that sometimes you have to decide which ones to go to and which ones to miss!

Then there are the moments in between. The moments where our Lord often works most clearly and deeply. For these moments, one of the things we are sharing this year is the book The Christmas Code by O.S. Hawkins. Come by and grab a copy for your family.

We'll see you at the concerts, the parties, and in those in between moments with Dr. Hawkins.
