With Easter right around the corner I'm excited to begin a new sermon series called "When Heaven Sent a Priest." This will be similar to our "When Heaven Sent a King" series leading up to Christmas.

Through each of our passages from Hebrews we'll be looking to see how: Jesus is a sympathetic priest. Jesus is a perfect priest, and how Jesus is a priest who also became our sacrifice.

There will be several opportunities to worship together throughout this Easter season. On the evening of Palm Sunday we will have a Night of Worship. We will also gather for a more somber service on Good Friday to remind ourselves of the crucifixion. All of which will lead up to celebrating Jesus' resurrection on Easter Sunday.

Let me encourage you to make the most out of this season. Use it as a time to slow down and remind yourself of the hope you have through the shed blood of Christ. But let me also encourage you to use this season as an opportunity to share that hope with others as well. Invite your friends, family, and neighbors so that they too can hear about the Priest that Heaven sent.
