Another amazing weekend at “The Coast!”

We had our gathering on Friday night so that you could have the whole weekend to share with family and friends. We had a really big crowd – one of our biggest of the year. The band was back together and sounded great. We shared an amazing meal from Taco Shack. Thanks to all of you who came out and made this event a success.

Carol and I left on Saturday morning to head to Key Largo where I had the opportunity to speak at Beach Church on Sunday. Their pastor – a long time friend of mine – is recuperating from heart surgery. This is a great church with a brand new campus.

Now on to this Sunday – Homecoming Sunday. We are calling it Homecoming Sunday because we want to invite all of our church family to come back “home” for this Sunday. We have not seen some of you in a long time and we are ready to have you back. We will have seating inside and outside. Here are some things that are going on.

Food Truck – we have a food truck coming in for breakfast and lunch. They will be serving from 8:30 am until noon. All of the food is reasonably priced for our event. You can eat under the big tent or take the food home. Here is the menu:

Sandlappers Southern Food

Breakfast specials

- Biscuits and Gravy
- Breakfast Casserole
- Build Your Own Grits Bowl
- Bacon, Egg and Cheese Sandwich
- Sausage, Egg and Cheese Sandwich

Lunch specials

- Fried Green Tomato BLT
- Carolina Gold BBQ Sandwich
- Chicken Finger Sandwich
- BBQ Mac and Cheese
- Bird Dog Sandwich (chicken fingers, bacon, shredded cheese, and honey mustard)

We have the “Big Blue Wave” water inflatable for our kids in 8th grade and under.

Great music from Common Ground Band! Super practical teaching!

Two gathering times – 8:55 am and 10:15 am.

I am looking forward to seeing all of you there!

Jerry

AFTER WORDS

AFTER WORDS

My participation in a local church was a lifesaver for me.

- It informed my conscience.
- It instilled in me a sense of purpose.
- It gave me the context for life-long friendships.
- It gave me a window into God's activity around the world.
- It taught me to be generous.
