President's Welcome

My personal association with NCBC since 1971 has allowed me to become involved in the lives of numerous students who have impacted their generation for Christ. Many of our graduates have planted churches, labored on the mission field, served in staff positions at their church, or taught in one of the many venues of Christian service. (See NCBC website, "Status of Current Graduates.")

For the first 28 years, the college aimed to serve only the needs of the greater San Francisco Bay Area. A major shift in purpose occurred in 1999, when NCBC went on-line (ncbc.net) and developed an extensive "off-site distance-learning center." In 2004 NCBC joined forces with "Reasons to Believe" to offer a state-of-the-art selection of courses addressing Christian apologetics. In 2018 NCBC became fully accredited with TRACS (Transnational Association of Colleges and Schools) and is listed in the United States Dept. of Higher Education as a nationally accredited college.

Our distance-learning program has been designed to accommodate the working student or military service person, who face both time and distance restrictions. With courses available on CDs, DVDs, or on-line, students can study from the privacy of their car or home. Students driving on their way to work can listen at ease, knowing that extensive faculty notes accompany each course. Classes have been designed to avoid tedious memorization, and to promote creative thinking. Self-pacing allows students to work at their own speed, while still holding to a defined schedule of completion.

"Our 'off-site distance-learning center' has been designed to accommodate the working student who faces both time and distance restrictions."

Many of our students are full-time teachers in Christian schools affiliated with A.C.S.I. (Association of Christian Schools International). NCBC's courses are approved by A.C.S.I. to satisfy the Certification requirements comprised of "continuing education units" (CEUs).

Throughout the past 42 years we have tried to maintain an evangelical, yet contemporary approach to the study of the Bible. If you're sensing the call to increase your biblical knowledge, or perhaps "tool-up" for a career in ministry, Northern California Bible College can help provide you with a strong biblical foundation.

Pastor David G. Sell, President

Statement from the Faculty Chairman

Northern California Bible College was founded with a commitment to blend the Word of God with the power of the Holy Spirit. Forty years later we stand proud of our graduates who pastor churches, serve as associate pastors, function as lay-leaders, or simply work the ministries of the local church.

When young leaders arrive with fresh vision to reach their generation, our job is to install sound biblical instruction, while continuously fueling their flame! In addition to the younger generation, many of our students are midway in life, now feeling the call to tool up for the years ahead; perhaps a second career in ministry awaits them.

We also believe that God is calling His Church into a fresh worldwide revival, requiring a vast supply of workers for the awaiting harvest. However God chooses to call our students—either into churches, businesses, missions, or home Bible studies—our goal is to teach them to live out God’s word, while being equipped in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Over the last 40 years NCBC has served the needs of students from hundreds of churches and various denominations. We also serve a growing network of “distance” students located throughout the United States. Some of our most dedicated learners are presently incarcerated in the California prison system; these men and women recently came to know the Lord and are now systematically studying the Bible. It is our privilege to invest in these true servants of Christ.

In the last several years we added four San Francisco Bay Area satellite locations. Our faculty brings to the table well over 100 years of pastoral experience, along with a strong academic grounding.

If you are considering entering into a systematic study of Scripture, you will find NCBC affordable, aligned with today’s culture, doctrinally supportive of the Spirit, and rich in biblical revelation.

Dr. Daniel J. Griffiths, Dean

“Our job is to install sound biblical instruction, while continuously fueling their flame!”

Statement Of Faith

We believe in the inerrancy of Scripture, realizing that the original autograph copies were inspired by God, containing no textual fault.

2 Timothy 3:16

We believe that the Scriptures are the verbally inspired Word of God, and are the final source in all matters relating to faith and conduct.

2 Timothy 3:16; 2 Peter 1:20-21

We believe that the one true God is revealed through the Scriptures as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God has manifested Himself to mankind in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 John 1:1-3; John 15:26; Matthew 28:19

We believe that man was created good and in the image of God but through voluntary transgression is lost and spiritually dead.

Genesis 1:27; 2:16-17; 1 Corinthians 15:21-22; Romans 3:9-10

We believe that redemption may be obtained only through repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. There is nothing a sinner can do to save oneself--except repent and call on the name of Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 2:8-9; Romans 3:10-24; 6:23

We believe that honest repentance and faith toward Christ Jesus will produce a sanctified vessel and separation from the world of sin.

1 Thessalonians 4:3-8; 5:23

We believe in water baptism by immersion as commanded in the Scriptures for all who repent and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Matthew 23:19; Acts 2:38; 10:48; Rom. 6:4

We believe in the "Baptism with the Holy Spirit" as a definite experience available to all believers, evidenced by power, joy, and the ability to speak in other tongues.

Matthew 3:11; Mk. 16:17; Acts 2:4; 11:16

We believe in miracles, prophetic utterances, and supernatural gifts given by the Holy Spirit to the church today.

1 Corinthians 12:7-11

We believe in the foundational ministries of the apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers for the church today.

Ephesians 4:7-15

We believe in New Testament order and organization for the local church, and in the authority of indigenous church government.

Titus 1:59; 1 Timothy 3:1-13; Acts 6:17

We believe in the literal bodily return of the Lord Jesus Christ to earth again. He will return from heaven in great glory and power, climaxing this age with judgment on the ungodly and the resurrection and translation of the righteous.

Matthew 16:27; 24:30; Acts 3:20; 1 Thessalonians 4:16; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-8; 2:8; Jude 14-15; Revelation 1:7

Purposes and Objectives

Mission Statement:
The Mission of Northern California Bible College is to provide nationally accredited undergraduate local and distance biblical education.

That purpose could include any combination of the following primary objectives:

1. A strong grasp of the factual contents of the Bible, interpreted in a sound, scholarly, and spiritual manner.

2. To better understand the truths of the Bible primarily for personal enrichment.

3. To finish either a Certificate Diploma, Associate of Arts, or Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies

4. To prepare for a future professional calling in part or full-time ministry.

5. To receive A.C.S.I. certification to teach in a Christian School.

Philosophy of Education

Based on our conviction of the inerrancy of Scripture as found in our Statement of Faith, all teaching and learning must of necessity flow from the concepts of education found in the Bible. These include:

- The imperative of wisdom (Deuteronomy 4:6; Job 12:13; Psalm 51:6; Proverbs 2:6, 3:13)
- The need for proper instruction (Exodus 24:12; Job 33:16; Proverbs 1:7; 1 Thessalonians 4:1)
- The command for change (Romans 12:2; 2 Corinthians 3:18)
- The requirement for learning (Deuteronomy 5:1; Psalm 119:71; Jeremiah 10:2; Matthew 11:29)
- The obligation of humility (Proverbs 15:3; Philippians 2:3; 1 Peter 5:5)

Northern California Bible College is an organization that honors Jesus Christ and brings glory to God by seeking to develop individuals to perceive all aspects of their lives as a sacred calling of God.

Every lesson/course remains consistent with generally accepted biblical interpretation established by generally accepted rules of hermeneutics, as presented by Conner K.J. & Malmin K. Interpreting the Scriptures (1983) City Christian Publishing, Portland, Oregon

Along with the individually chosen coursework, the NCBC philosophy of education includes the idea that the shared life of the instructor is as relevant to the overall learning experience of the student than the actual content of a course. Hence, those selected to teach, be it online or on campus, must model the careful attention of their own spiritual development and humbly reveal that to the students whenever possible. Following the idea that “you teach a little by what you say, more by what you do, but most of all by who you are”, it is imperative that all NCBC employees, but particularly the instructors, make conscious efforts to reveal their personal efforts to grow in Christlikeness, whatever that may be.

Statement of Ethical Values and Standards

It shall be the practice that all individuals, committees, instructors, Board members, and employees of Northern California Bible College (NCBC) shall conduct themselves when representing the College in a manner that follows Biblical guidelines and brings honor to Jesus Christ.

Specifically, these guidelines include but are not limited to the following:

1. Submitting to the authority of the Scriptures in all manner of faith and conduct at the control of the Holy Spirit. (2Tim. 3:16-17)
2. Honesty in communication. This includes truthfulness as well as that no relevant information shall be withheld in any communication, verbal or written.
3. Kindness and respect shall be demonstrated toward all individuals with whom any NCBC employee shall come into contact with during the fulfillment of their employment responsibilities. (Gal. 5:22)
4. All reports shall be complete, timely, accurate, and provide the information necessary for decision-making and accreditation.
5. Any employee or Board member shall self-disclose any potential conflict of interest, be it financial or personal, in respect to their affiliation with NCBC.
6. Refraining from any conduct that will reflect discredit upon the Lord and offend a weaker believer. (1Cor. 10:31)

Our Typical Student

Most of our students fall into one of the following categories:

Currently in, or pursuing full-time ministry, while finding it necessary to complete their Bible college education on a part-time basis.

A Christian lay-person who has a strong interest in the Bible, wanting to study in more depth than may be available at the local church level.

A teacher in a Christian school, required to continue their biblical education by earning CEUs in order to maintain their ACSI credential.

Enlisted in the military, often taking courses overseas.

Students' letters speak of their experience with Off-Site Learning:

"This past summer nine of our faculty continued their biblical education at NCBC, while also earning CEUs to satisfy their requirements with A.C.S.I."

*Jeri Schall, Former Principal,
Valley Christian Elementary, Dublin, CA*

"I want to thank you for this fascinating study. Quite honestly, I was not looking forward to listening to 24 CDs, but after the first one I was 'hooked.'"

Kelli Mori, Modesto, CA

"Given family and work demands, finding time to study and extend one's knowledge of the scripture is probably a large challenge for many folks, as it has been for me. But with NCBC's off-site learning program, it has allowed me the opportunity and flexibility to continue with my desire to continue studying the word of God.

All the courses taken to date have far exceeded my expectations, and the topics and lectures have been terrific. In summary, the learning has been great and having a Bible college within reach has been a major convenience. With my daily commute time to work averaging one hour each way, I have also been able to take advantage of these unproductive driving periods to listen to the lesson while I meditate on the words. Typically, I would listen to the same CD three to four times during the course of the week's driving; during the weekend time to write up the assignments."

On-Site Learning Program

One of the purposes of the on-site courses is to serve as the “recording studio” for classes which later become part of the Distance Learning curriculum.

The majority of NCBC’s curriculum is offered at our four campuses in San Jose, Dublin, Pleasanton and San Leandro.

San Jose, California

Cathedral of Faith: In San Jose, classes are held at the Cathedral of Faith

(Horton Youth Center, Rooms 208 & 209). The address is 2315 Canoas Garden, San Jose, 95125.

Jubilee Christian Center: Courses are offered each quarter in the Jerusalem Room (Admin Building), located at 175 Nortech, San Jose, 95134, just off 1st Street and Highway 237. Courses taken from Jubilee Bible College are transferable into NCBC’s degree programs.

Gateway City Church: Courses offered in upstairs prayer room. Courses taken from Impact are transferable into NCBC’s degree program. Located at 5883 Eden Park Place, San Jose, 95138.

Dublin, California

Valley Christian Center: In Dublin, classes are held at Valley Christian Center (Preschool Building, Fireside Room). The address is 7500 Inspiration Drive, Dublin, 94568.

Pleasanton, California

Northern Calif. Bible College: In Pleasanton, classes are held at the main campus of Northern Calif. Bible College, located at 4439 Stoneridge Dr., Suite 210, Pleasanton, 94588.

San Leandro, California

Faith Fellowship: In San Leandro, classes are held at Faith Fellowship Church, located at 577 Manor Blvd., San Leandro, 94579

Each class meets for two hours with a ten-minute break in the middle. Courses traditionally run for 12 weeks and follow the quarter system. Each quarter a different selection of courses is offered; each is listed and described in the catalog under “Description of Courses.” A course schedule is published each quarter and available upon request. New quarters begin in September, January, and April.

One of the purposes of the on-site courses is to serve as the “recording studio” for classes which later become part of the Distance Learning curriculum. Each classroom is equipped with high level audio and video equipment, and each class session is recorded. Questions asked by the students, as well as in-class discussion are always included as part of the recording. Copies of these courses are available on CD or DVD.

Students sign up for On-Site courses by first filling out all registration materials and paying their one-time registration fee. Students then attend the first class session and sign up at the first session. Students sign up for their on-site courses by attending the first class session and registering at that time.

Off-Site Distance Learning Program

Northern California Bible College’s primary focus is its Distance Learning Program. This makes it possible for students to complete their degree exclusively through distance learning, made available through DVD, CD or online format classes.

All three formats (CD, DVD, and Online) must include regular interaction with the instructor and be completed within the same 12-week time-frame of any specific quarter. Students are required to submit homework assignments along with comments or questions to the instructor twice monthly. The ‘open book’ final exam must be proctored by an individual whose name and address are provided to NCBC for the administration of the final exam. NCBC Instructors will respond within five working days to all assignments and questions.

CD and DVD FORMAT COURSES:

The student orders courses that have been previously taught at other NCBC instructional sites. These classes include 20-24 CDs or 12 DVDs of all the lectures given in a particular course. The CDs include all questions, recorded discussion, and dialog that took place in that class session, through the benefit of the latest recording technology.

In addition to listening to the lectures, the student performs all course work that includes assigned reading, answering study questions, and an “open-book” final examination. Study Questions are answered and emailed to the instructor not less than twice monthly.

Students enrolled in the on-site program often find it helpful to supplement their program by adding certain distance-courses. This usually occurs when a desired course will not be taught again on campus in the immediate future.

Getting Started:

- Students become initially registered in the school by following the process found on page 26.
- Students sign up for the course of their choice by indicating on the Course Order Form which course(s) they would like to take. The order form comes in the Registration Packet, along with the catalog.

- The cost for tuition and books is sent to Northern California Bible College (4439 Stoneridge Dr. Suite 210, Pleasanton, CA 94588).
- Upon receiving payment, the course(s) is then sent to the student.
- Once the coursework and/or the final exam has been received at the college, the coursework, final exam, and final grade will be returned to the student within 10 working days.

ONLINE FORMAT COURSES:

Students may take any of the available courses online. Students have access to a video and audio feed of all the lectures when taught live, and also receive a written transcript of all the lecture materials needed.

The online format is convenient and adaptable to a busy work and family schedule. For students who enjoy studying independently, this program allows you to engage in class lectures at any time through a laptop or desktop computer, or through a smart phone or tablet device. The course note outlines are provided in electronic format, or a printed version can also be purchased.

As an incentive to get started, all first-time students are welcome to take their first online course at no tuition charge; they only pay for any additional textbooks.

Getting Started:

- Students become initially enrolled in the school by following the process found on page 26.
- All online correspondence and coursework takes place within NCBC's online portal, MyNCBC Desktop. The student will be issued a username and password that allows them access to their online 'Desktop.'

$460.00 (tuition per 3 unit course) x 45 courses required = $20,600

Course Descriptions

NEW TESTAMENT WRITINGS

NT 101/New Testament Survey 3 units

Each book of the New Testament makes its own unique contribution to the overall construction of the New Testament. In addition to the information regarding authorship, dates, and concurrent themes, the students will gain a new appreciation for the overall unity of the New Testament.

NT 201/Life of Christ 1 3 units

A verse-by-verse approach to the four Gospels provides a unique glimpse into the ministry and nature of Christ. The student will become familiar with historical customs of the day, prophetic fulfillments, and spiritual applications. The subject material covers the first half of Jesus' 3 1/2 year ministry.

NT 202/Life of Christ 2 3 units

A continuation of Life of Christ 1. Special emphasis is given to the final days leading up to and including the crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension.

NT 203/Acts of the Apostles 3 units

The Book of Acts shouts the excitement of an early Church alive with the mission to evangelize the world. The student relives the drama of apostolic leadership in the heat of the revival, persecution, and converting the multitudes. Practical keys to church growth are also analyzed throughout the course.

NT 301/Romans 3 units

One cannot fully appreciate his or her salvation through Christ without understanding the Book of Romans. The course attempts to explain subjects such as justification, adoption, predestination, grace, and faith. The study also includes insights into God's plan for Israel, the seven motivational gifts of ministry, and the circumstances surrounding the church at Rome.

NT 302/Corinthians 3 units

1 Corinthians is one of the most practical and far reaching epistles of the Christian faith, addressing topics ranging from: spiritual mindedness, Christian love, marriage and sexuality, law suits, carnality, the resurrection, and spiritual gifts.

In 2 Corinthians Paul addresses a laundry list of accusations made against him by the church that he started and loved. These books bring us deep into the hurting heart of our beloved Apostle, while showing us how to properly handle unfair accusations.

NT 303/Prison Epistles 3 units

The letters to the churches of Ephesus, Philippi, and Colossae, otherwise known as the Prison Epistles, contain some of Paul's deepest revelations. As we go through these key books of the New Testament we discover vital insights into the structure of the church, the mysteries of the kingdom, and the high call of each believer.

304/Pastoral Epistles 3 units

The study of 1 & Timothy and the epistle to Titus have been deemed the Pastoral Epistles of Paul. In these letters we discover Paul's true heart toward caring for God's people, and how he poured himself into these two younger men who would carry on after Paul was gone. In the first hour of each session we will explore these epistles verse by verse. The second hour will be devoted to a pertinent topic on the subject of pastoral ministry.

NT 305/Hebrews3 units

The study through the Book of Hebrews will attempt to answer the mysterious question as to the book's authorship. From there the course focuses upon explaining each verse through each chapter, emphasizing the role of the New Testament priesthood, the supremacy and sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ, along with a collection of such themes as "Entering into God's Rest" and "the Hebrews Hall of Faith."

NT 306/General Epistles3 units

The General Epistles include the letters by James, Peter, John and Jude, otherwise referred to as James, 1 & 2 Peter, 1,2,3 John, and Jude. The course will take the student through each of these seven epistles verse by verse. Emphasis will be given to the primary message of each writer, and how their words merge with the activity of the growing church at this time in history.

NT 307/Life of Paul3 units

This course devoted to the Apostle Paul, traces his transition from "ruthless Pharisee" to "Apostle to the Gentiles." Paul's strengths, struggles, writings, and journeys take on a fresh new understanding when examined in particular detail.

NT 308/Revelation3 units

The return of Christ has been called our "blessed hope." In mysterious detail, the Book of Revelation prepares the way for that final event. As much as possible, the course attempts to clarify those predicted events yet to come. When diverse interpretations occur, the strengths and weaknesses of each major view will be analyzed and evaluated.

NT 401/The Historical Jesus3 units

This course addresses the challenges that come from popular culture, as well as liberal theologians concerning the historicity of Jesus' life, death and resurrection. From there, the course presents ten different sides of the person of Jesus. They range from Jesus the Son of God, to the Son of Man, the Miracle Worker, the Master Teacher, the Redeemer, the Shepherd, and finally the Savior of the world.

OLD TESTAMENT WRITINGSOT 101/Old Testament Survey*3 units

This course provides the student with a necessary basic overview of the Old Testament through the era of the kings of Israel. The course examines the great themes of Scripture which originate within the book of Genesis and continue throughout the entire Old Testament. The student will also discover the genius of how the writings of so many Old Testament authors were woven together to form one magnificent work. In addition to the spiritual perspective, the student also gains a working knowledge of the history and culture of that period.

OT 201/Genesis3 units

The Book of Genesis contains the beginning of each of the great themes of the Bible. The very roots of the Christian life emerge through a careful examination of original sin, Abraham's walk of faith, and the trials of Jacob and Joseph. Genesis also serves as the beginning history book of all mankind, rehearsing the creation, the flood, the dividing of the earth, and the beginning of the Hebrew people.

OT 202/The Life of Moses3 units

The books of Exodus and Numbers recount the amazing 40 year journey out of Egypt and through the wilderness. The course often concentrates on the peculiarities of God's dealings with Israel, and particularly His servant Moses. Through this course we discover Moses the man, who carried the heavy burden of Israel upon his shoulders.

OT 203/Psalms3 units

The course focuses upon worship to the Lord. Particular emphasis centers upon how the forms of Davidic worship serve to model corporate worship in the New Testament church. In addition, this sensitive book chronicles the agonies and ecstasies of what it means to live for God.

OT 301/Joshua, Judges, Ruth3 units

These three books trace the history of Israel from the entrance into the promised land throughout the period of the Judges. The battles we face on a daily basis run parallel to Israel's confrontations centuries ago. Our challenge is to follow the righteous example of Israel under Joshua's leadership and avoid the foolish ways of Israel during the Judges. The book of Ruth serves as a refreshing oasis in the midst of the turmoil of the Judges.

OT 302/The Life of David3 units

The life of David continues to inspire believers in each generation. King David conquered his enemies, lived the ecstasies of God's presence, and with his charisma won the hearts of Israel. He also faced issues squarely without apology, always accepting the correction of God. The course promises a fresh new look into the life of a man with a heart similar to God's own heart.

OT 303/Kings of Israel3 units

The period of the kings of Israel abounds with color, drama, and adventure unparalleled. The victories gained through righteousness stand against the backdrop of defeats caused by sin. Each individual story offers multiple lessons for victorious Christian living.

OT 304/Ezra, Neh., Esther3 units

This exciting study of restoration covers the historical period surrounding Israel after returning from Babylonian captivity. This includes the rebuilding of the temple under Ezra's leadership and the wall under Nehemiah's leadership. The book of Esther is the classic drama of how Israel endured an enormous crisis through the grace of God.

OT 305/Job & Ecclesiastes3 units

The story of Job provides biblical insight into why man encounters suffering. This unusual narrative provides important keys for counseling and illustrates the acceptable attitude while in the midst of hardship. Ecclesiastes explores the timeless vanities of life and concludes with the only answer to man's search for happiness.

OT 306/Proverbs3 units

The book of Proverbs has a unique ability to pierce right to the heart of the issue. The wide variety of subjects include proper planning, lending money, raising children, marriage, the work ethic, and anger management, just to name a few. Having studied this book, we become better able to enter each of life's many challenges.

OT 307/Song of Solomon3 units

The Song of Solomon serves as a biblical guide to marital intimacy. During this course the student will first come to understand the standard interpretation of this unusual addition to Solomon's wisdom literature collection. In addition to mere academics of this book, husbands and wives will come to know first hand how God has fashioned the sexual and emotional relationship that was intended for a husband and wife.

OT 308/Daniel3 units

Daniel exemplifies a man of integrity who lived under the constant temptation to compromise while living in Babylon. Some of the great tales of the Bible come from this lively book. It has also been called "the apocalypse of the Old Testament." The study of the "70 Weeks Prophecy" serves as a necessary prerequisite to understanding the final events.

OT 401/Survey of the Prophets3 units

This fascinating course provides the student with an overview of both the Major and Minor Prophets, all written during the time of the kings of Israel. Each prophetic book is examined as a whole, which includes a biography of the prophet, the major theme of the book, and the time and placement of the book in the overall history of Israel.

THEOLOGICAL STUDIESTH 101/The Spirit of Man*3 units

This first segment of a three-part series will investigate the spiritual make-up of man. An understanding of the three major differences between the human spirit and the soul provides important insight into our battle with the carnal nature. Particular emphasis is placed upon understanding the conscience, what happens at death, and how to distinguish between true and false guilt.

TH 102/The Spirit of God3 units

This second section of a three-part series is devoted to the study of the Holy Spirit. The uniqueness of the person of the Holy Spirit is often misunderstood or simply ignored. His character, deity, and commission will receive our utmost attention. His 25 titles illustrate the diversity of His vast function in our lives. The course also attempts to answer the honest questions people have regarding the baptism and gifts of the Spirit.

TH 103/The Satanic Spirit3 units

When we understand what the Bible teaches about the devil, we realize how much power and authority we actually possess over his kingdom. The course concentrates upon exposing his strategies and distinguishes his efforts from the "works of the flesh." In addition, the subject of demonology will be addressed. Within that study we will attempt to answer the question, "Can a Christian possess a demon?"

TH 201/Understanding End Times3 units

This fascinating study familiarizes the student with the various theological positions on end times. The course examines such subjects as the timing of the rapture in respect to the tribulation, Daniel's 70 Week Prophecy, natural Israel, the church in the last days, events leading up to the Second Coming of Christ, and what happens afterward.

Th 202/Systematic Theology 13 units

Systematic Theology 1 is the study of the major doctrines of the Bible, which include: the Creation, the Trinity, the Redemption of Man, the nature of God & man, Free-will vs. Predestination, the concept of Covenant, and Eschatology.

Th 203/Systematic Theology 23 units

A continuation of Systematic Theology 1 with emphasis upon how to develop a theology on a particular doctrine.

Th 204/The Last Shaking3 units

One of the great themes that runs through the Bible is the final harvest of souls before Jesus returns. Throughout the centuries there have been massive revivals bringing hundreds of thousands to the Lord. These pale in comparison to final ingathering just before the return of Christ. This coming season has been referred to as the fulfillment of the Feast of Tabernacles or when the former and the latter rains are poured out together. This is a "must" class for those living near the time of end!
