Faith Stories: Amanda Perdue
Texts: Romans 8:18–30

Notes from story:

We can have hope in the midst of our circumstances because:

—The _____ we are _____ right now does not compare with the _____ we will _____ in _____.

—The _____ of God is in us, helping us in our _____ by _____ for us before God.

—No matter what, God is working _____ for _____.

“...it promises that nothing will touch our lives that is not under the control and direction of our loving Heavenly Father. Everything we do and say, everything people do to us or say about us, every experience we will ever have—all are sovereignly used by God for our good. We will not always understand how the things we experience work to good, and we certainly will not always enjoy them. But we do know that nothing comes into our lives that God does not allow and use for his own beneficent purposes...God has ordained not only the ends but the means.” —Douglas Moo
