

Fidel Guerrero was born in Camagüey, Cuba. At the age of eleven his whole family moved to Miami, Florida where he grew up and went to school. He became a Christian in 1973 and became a member of Westchester Christian Church. In 1978 he became a pilot for American Airlines. In June of 2005 he moved with all his family to Georgia to plant a new church, The Rock Woodstock. He was recognized as a pastor in the summer of 2006. At the end of 2007, after working for American Airlines for for 30 years as a Captain, he retired early to become a full-time pastor. Fidel is married to Maria Elena and has 3 children: Elias, Natalie, and Cristina.

Contact:

Email: fidel@therockatlanta.com