Epiphany Devotion

Matthew 5:14–16 ¹⁴ “You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵ Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

Epiphany is the season when God pulls back the curtain and lets us see more clearly who Jesus is. Light keeps showing up in the readings—not the harsh glare of a spotlight, but the kind of light that helps you see where you’re standing.

Jesus says, “You are the light of the world.” That can feel like a heavy responsibility. Most days we don’t feel very bright. We’re tired, distracted, sometimes discouraged. And yet Jesus says this to ordinary people—people with jobs, families, worries, and weaknesses—because his light has already found us.

Light does not draw attention to itself; it reveals what is already there. In the same way, our good works do not point to us—they point to Christ. Acts of patience, mercy, generosity, and quiet faithfulness become little epiphanies, moments where others glimpse the love of God at work.

As we journey through Epiphany, we ask not, “How can I be seen?” but rather, “How can Christ be seen through me?” May our lives reflect the light we have received, so that God—not we ourselves—may be glorified.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, you are our light. Shine through us so that others may see your love and give glory to our Father in heaven. Amen.

New Series Begins 'Exactly What I Need':

"I didn't know I needed that" is a common expression of surprise and realization. It suggests that something, whether it's a piece of information, a lesson learned, or a newfound understanding, has come to light and is now recognized as being essential or valuable, even if it wasn't previously apparent. Lent is the season of the Church Year when I recognize my greatest needs. During Lent, I realize that in Christ all my greatest needs are met. God knows what I need even when I don't have any idea. The Holy Spirit makes it clear, week after week, that if I lack Christ, I have nothing. But if I have Christ, I have exactly what I need.

- Pants/Leggings (newborn to 4T)
- Washcloths (crocheted or bought)
- Knitted winter hats (newborn to adult)
- Short sleeve shirts (24 months to 4T)
- Sun hats (newborn to adult)
- Sweatshirts (24 months to 4T)

We are supplying this list now in case any crafters would like to make some of the supplies or for those who like to bargain hunt for after Christmas specials. More information will follow in March 2026.

A message from Home Missionary Joe Lindloff, Anchor Church in Marquette, MI:

God claims another!

As we began meeting to plant a new church in Marquette, Michigan, we had no idea what opportunities God would lay before us. We knew he would bless the church according to his will, and we couldn't wait to see how he would use us to reach others with his Word and sacrament. One of the couples with whom God richly blessed us was Evan and Karena. Karena completed the adult Bible information class, and soon afterward they asked that their daughter, Aela, be baptized. We didn't have a baptismal font or even worship services yet. However, the answer was a resounding "PRAISE GOD!"

On a Sunday evening during our mission meeting, sweet Aela was baptized and made a dear child of God. Her smile says it all! God claimed another through water and the Word, and she is his dearly loved child. Hers was the first baptism here in our mission church, and we can't wait to see who else God will adopt into his family through the rich gift of baptism. Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!

'May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as your trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit' (Romans 15:13).
