Kindergarten Visits PAC

On Thursday, February 20th the Kindergarten Class walked to the PAC to see a performance of two well-loved books by Margaret Wise Brown: "Goodnight Moon" and "Runaway Bunny". This 2 act play was performed by Mermaid Theater of Nova Scotia, and included music by Steven Naylor. The students were captivated by the bright colored sets, the small cast of three actors, and all the incredible puppetry! It was so much fun seeing these stories brought to life!

The Show Goes On!

The cast for Annie Jr. has been announced and last week cast members received their scripts. Students are to take special care of their scripts as they will be returned to the school following our performance in May. The schedule of after school rehearsals for cast members was also handed out. Those rehearsal times have also been published on the online calendar on our website. Students participating in the chorus will practice their parts during the school day and do not need to attend after school rehearsals.

Spelling Bees

Previously, on January 9 our school held a school spelling bee for grades 1-8. The top 2 spellers from each grade competed to determine the top 2 spellers in our school. Ezra L. and Evelyn V. were chosen as the top spellers in our school.

Ezra and Evelyn represented our school at the annual CESA 6 spelling bee competition. With 43 spellers representing the Fox Valley, Evelyn made it to the top 15, and Ezra made it to the top 5. We are all so impressed with their poise and dedication! Congratulations, girls!
