Dear Members of St. Paul Ministry,

Thank you for the generous gifts presented to me at our last school chapel. I was blest to be able to teach the little lambs and work with the St. Paul faculty. You are blest to have a school and the called workers that you have. May the Lord continue to bless you as you continue to spread God's Word. To God be all the glory.

Mrs. Nancy Zander

THE SYNODICAL CONFERENCE CELEBRATING THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY

On July 10, 1872, Professor Carl Ferdinand Wilhelm Walther stepped into the pulpit at Pastor Johann Bading's church, St. John, Milwaukee, and exclaimed, "O blessed and holy day!" He was preaching the opening sermon at the inaugural convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synodical Conference of North America and expressing his unmitigated joy that he had lived to see this day. With the Spirit's help, six confessional Lutheran church bodies in the American Midwest had forged a gospel ministry partnership that could and would have a profound impact on American and world Lutheranism for decades.

But had these synods discovered complete doctrinal agreement? They hadn't, nor did they expect to find it. Instead, the Synodical Conference was founded on what Walther described as "fundamental unity," as Pastor Peter M. Prange will explain in his presentation "The Synodical Conference: Founded on Fundamental Unity" to mark the 150th anniversary of the Synodical Conference's first convention. How did our forefathers define fundamental unity? Come and find out.

A service of thanksgiving will precede the presentation. Professor em. Dr. Mark Braun, Wisconsin Lutheran College, will serve as the preacher. Dr. Braun has written extensively on the history of the Synodical Conference.

Where: St. John Ev. Lutheran Church
804 W. Vliet Street
Milwaukee, Wis.

When: Sunday, July 10, 2022
Service of Thanksgiving – 2 p.m.
Presentation – 3 p.m.
