

Study Hall at First Baptist Church Pleasant Grove

Student Code of Conduct

One of the primary goals of Study Hall at FBCPG is to establish and maintain a spiritual and favorable academic atmosphere for students and volunteers. Effective learning cannot take place in an environment where student behavior interferes with the ability of volunteers to facilitate e-learning, or the ability of other students to complete e-learning assignments.

To foster an orderly and distraction-free environment, Study Hall at FBCPG has established this Student Code of Conduct. Study Hall at FBCPG students are expected to:

- Complete school work during their time at FBCPG.
- Remain with the volunteer(s) assigned to them for their time at FBCPG.
- Bring everything needed to complete their school work, including devices, headphones, login credentials, schedules, books, writing utensils, etc.
- Honor the adult volunteers and FBCPG staff.
- Refrain from watching or listening to inappropriate material.
- Enjoy connecting with friends and being a part of this opportunity.
- Leave when the day comes to a close.
- Clean up after themselves.
- Stay home if they have a fever or other symptoms of illness.
- Notify staff immediately if they test positive for COVID-19.

Study Hall at FBCPG prohibits behaviors that are intended to cause another individual physical or mental harm, interfere with volunteer's ability to maintain a positive learning environment, and/or are illegal. Examples include:

- Possession or use of a weapon (including plastic knives, pocket knives, water guns or any imitation weapon)
- Possession, sale, or use of drugs, alcohol, or tobacco
- Theft
- Fighting: physical assault or battery of any kind
- Bullying: Bullying of any kind is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Repeated bullying of a student may be treated as harassment, and the bullying student subject to more serious disciplinary action, including expulsion. Bullying includes but is not limited to the following:
 - ◊ Physical acts (shoving, hitting, pinching, etc.) o Verbal acts (intimidation, name calling, spreading rumors, sarcasm, threats, extortion, ridiculing, teasing, etc.)
 - ◊ Non-verbal acts (aggressively excluding others, rude or upsetting gestures, etc.)
 - ◊ Cyber-bullying o Any incidents of bullying via the computer, cell phones, or related media (email, blogs, websites, instant messaging, pictures/photos, text messaging, etc.) which affect student relationship/behavior within the school building are subject to disciplinary action. This applies to messaging which takes place outside of school, as well as any prohibited messaging which might take place within the school.
 - ◊ Harassing, threatening, or intimidating a pupil who is a complaining witness or a witness in a school disciplinary proceeding for the purpose of either preventing that pupil from being a witness or retaliating against that pupil for being a witness, or both (CA Ed. Code 48902(a)).
- Sexual harassment of any kind
- Arson
- Selling or buying items at school
- Gambling
- Forgery (of parent notes, etc.)
