

“Preparing for My Burial”
Sermon Notes
March 22, 2026

What might Jesus be thinking as He enters the last week of his life?

John 12:1-11

Key Events of this Passage

Mary _____ his feet

Judas _____

The chief priests continue now plot to kill both _____ and _____.

Romans 6:23

“For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Because God is just, payment for our sins was necessary—death and separation from God because of our sin.

Jesus, as the Lamb of God, took our punishment upon himself, substituting His life for ours.

At the heart of the reason behind Jesus' death is the concept of atonement, which means, basically, to _____ or make _____ between us and God.

At the center of the atonement is Jesus' _____ death of the cross.

Without Jesus as our substitute, taking _____ place and dying for _____ sins, there is no gospel - no _____.

_____ did what _____ cannot!

*Our sins would be on us forever.
Redemption eternally out of our grasp.
But because Jesus died for us, we have good news to tell, good news of great joy for all people. Reconciliation with God is ours for eternity by faith in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ!*
