Karen Carter Joins Mulberry Staff

We are very pleased and excited to welcome Karen Carter to the Mulberry Staff as the new Connections Director. Karen and her family have been a long time members at Mulberry and actively involved in the ministries of this church. She is married to Austin Carter and have three children, Austin, Henry and Jack.

Her responsibilities include:

Evangelism - Engaging and inviting potential guests to become part of the Mulberry family.

Assimilation - Moving guests from first time visitors to fully committed, growing disciples.

Host Team - Oversee Mulberry Host Team - greeters and other volunteers who serve in making sure that individuals feel welcome at Mulberry Street UMC.

Volunteer Coordinator - Help individuals determine which Mulberry ministry team best meets their interests and current needs, including service, spiritual growth and care options, and facilitate that connection.

She brings a lot of energy and excitement to this part-time position and will help move Mulberry to the next level. She can be reached at kcarter@mulberrymethodist.org or the church office 478-745-8601.

Give her a big WELCOME!

Blessings,

Pam Johnston, Director of Children & Family Ministries
