* Hymn of Stewardship

“As Saints of Old Their First Fruits Brought” FOREST GREEN

As saints of old their first fruits brought of orchard, flock, and field
to God the giver of all good,
the Source of bounteous yield;
so we today first fruits would bring;
the wealth of this good land,
of farm and market, shop and home,
of mind, and heart, and hand.

A world in need now summons us
to labor, love, and give;
to make our life an offering
that others too may live.
The church of Christ is calling us
to make the dream come true:
a world redeemed, Your kingdom come,
all life in Christ made new.

In gratitude and humble trust
we bring our best today,
to serve Your cause, to share Your love
and show to all Your way,
O God, who gave Yourself to us
in Jesus Christ Your Son, teach us to give ourselves each day
until life's work is done.

Today's Sermon

“Shepherds and Farmers”

Today's Scripture

Genesis 4:1-16

The man Adam knew his wife Eve intimately. She became pregnant and gave birth to Cain, and said, “I have given life to a man with the LORD’s help.” She gave birth a second time to Cain’s brother Abel. Abel cared for the flocks, and Cain farmed the fertile land.

Some time later, Cain presented an offering to the LORD from the land’s crops while Abel presented his flock’s oldest offspring with their fat. The LORD looked favorably on Abel and his sacrifice but didn’t look favorably on Cain and his sacrifice. Cain became very angry and looked resentful. The LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry, and why do you look so resentful? If you do the right thing, won’t you be accepted? But if you don’t do the right thing, sin will be waiting at the door ready to strike! It will entice you, but you must rule over it.”

Cain said to his brother Abel, “Let’s go out to the field.” When they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

The LORD said to Cain, “Where is your brother Abel?”

Cain said, “I don’t know. Am I my brother’s guardian?”

The LORD said, “What did you do? The voice of your brother’s blood is crying to me from the ground. You are now cursed from the ground that opened its mouth to take your brother’s blood from your hand. When you farm the fertile land, it will no longer grow anything for you, and you will become a roving nomad on the earth.”

Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment is more than I can bear. Now that you’ve driven me away from the fertile land and I am hidden from your presence, I’m about to become a roving nomad on the earth, and anyone who finds me will kill me.”

The LORD said to him, “It won’t happen; anyone who kills Cain will be paid back seven times. The LORD put a sign on Cain so that no one who found him would assault him. Cain left the LORD’s presence, and he settled down in the land of Nod, east of Eden.
