

The Work of the Holy Spirit (2:4)

In the beginning

Active and present at creation, hovering over the unordered conditions (Gen. 1:2)

In the Old Testament

The origin of supernatural abilities (Gen. 41:38)

The giver of artistic skill (Ex. 31:2–5)

The source of power and strength (Judg. 3:9, 10)

The inspiration of prophecy (1

Sam. 19:20, 23)

The mediation of God's message (Mic. 3:8)

In Old Testament prophecy

The cleansing of the heart for The New Testament holy living (Ezek. 36:25–29)

In salvation

Brings conviction (John 16:8– 11)

Regenerates the believer

(Titus 3:5)

Sanctifies the believer (2

Thess. 2:13)

Completely indwells the believer (John 14:17; Rom.

8:9–11)

understands the Holy Spirit to be the assurance of the risen Lord

Jesus indwelling believers.

In the New Testament

Imparts spiritual truth (John 14:26; 16:13; 1 Cor. 2:13–15)

Glorifies Christ (John 16:14)

Endows with power for gospel proclamation (Acts 1:8)

Fills believers (Acts 2:4)

Pours out God's love in the heart (Rom. 5:5)

Enables believers to walk in holiness (Rom. 8:1–8; Gal. 5:16–25)

Makes intercession (Rom. 8:26)

Imparts gifts for ministry (1 Cor. 12:4–11)

Strengthens the inner being (Eph. 3:16)

In the written Word

Inspired the writing of Scripture (2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21)