

SUPER STRONG

Note: Puppets can be very effective with this age group and may be used instead of actors. A teacher may carry on a conversation with a puppet as the other character if two actors are not available.

[Scooter comes on stage and begins striking muscle man poses.]

Beth: Hi, Scooter!

Scooter: Hi, Beth! I'm SUPER strong. [strikes pose]

Beth: You are? How strong?

Scooter: I'm as strong as a firefighter!

Beth: That's pretty strong!

Scooter: I'm as strong as a muscle man!

Beth: Wow! That's REALLY strong.

Scooter: I'm as strong as a SUPERHERO!

Beth: That's so strong! Did you know there was a REALLY strong man in the Bible? His name was Samson.

Scooter: Cool! Was he as strong as a firefighter?

Beth: Stronger!

Scooter: Whoa! Was he as strong as a muscle man?

Beth: Even stronger!

Scooter: What about a superhero?

Beth: He was even stronger than that! But there was Someone even stronger than Samson.

Scooter: Who?

Beth: God! He helped Samson and was there when Samson needed him.

Scooter: So I guess God is the strongest of all!

Beth: That's right.

Scooter: I sure am glad that he's my helper, too. I guess I don't have to be as strong as a firefighter or a muscle man or a superhero, when I have God on my side.

Beth: You're right about that! Then you'll be really strong.

[Both exit.]
