STAFF POSITION DESCRIPTIONS

Expectations

Each member of the ministerial staff is recommended by the Lead Pastor and approved by the Board of Deacons. They are directly responsible to the Lead Pastor unless working under direction of another leader, but each is amenable to him and not the congregation.

A spirit of assistance beyond the assigned responsibilities is expected from the team members. Harmony and cooperation must prevail both publicly and privately between the Lead Pastor and all of the staff. Confidences are valuable and therefore should be guarded carefully and responsibly. A channel of communication must be kept open for the sharing of ideas, inspirations, problems, and purposes.

Each staff member creates an image of their work. They should be more concerned with building relationships than with an impressive display of numbers and mechanics (not to diminish the importance of quality programming). “Administer” means to serve or serve through.

It is expected and required that each staff member will wholeheartedly support and submit to the ministry and the vision of the Lead Pastor. Loyalty is the golden word in staff relations. This means that the staff works together as a team by giving full support to one another and to the programs each is promoting. When differences occur between staff members they should be resolved privately, “Endeavoring to keep unity through the bond of peace.”

Assignments to the staff fall into these three areas:

1. Give primary leadership in assigned ministries and areas.
2. Develop lay leadership in assigned areas.
3. Develop ministering programs in assigned areas.

Each staff member may be evaluated annually (or an interim review) by the Lead Pastor and/or Ministry leader. A salary review will be conducted by the Lead Pastor and the Board of Deacons as the budget permits. A staff member may be dismissed due to incompetence, immorality, or unethical behavior.

Upon the resignation of the Lead Pastor the Ministerial Staff, out of common courtesy, shall also offer their resignation to the Board. The Board may then ask the staff to stay during the interim time of seeking for a new Lead Pastor. The new Lead Pastor would be free to select their staff with the Board’s approval.
