Missionaries:

Drew & Stacy Frazer with Navigators at MSU in Bozeman, MT
During orientation three individuals came to Christ through the Navigators ministry. Drew counsels many troubled in life. He states: Every year in our Collegiate ministry we see thousands of students meet Christ, grow in Him, and become totally available to God during college and after they graduate. Throughout their college careers, we help these students develop strong spiritual foundations and encourage them to pass on what they have learned to their friends and family. We develop life-long laborers in the Kingdom. God has done immeasurably more than Drew & Stacy could have imagined! They are unable to meet in a large group setting so are doing Bible study with the students. They are studying 1&2 Peter. About 120 students signed up for study! Stacy is not able to be on campus full time, but is homeschooling her sweet children. Garrett is playing flag football, Elizabeth is continuing with ballet, and Dax is leading a Lego class for two little boys. She spends Fridays on campus. She meets with two freshmen girls, teaching them how to spend time with Jesus in His Word. She meets with Clair who is on staff and they pray for the women on campus. She meets with Emery - a freshman who is hungry to know Jesus. Please pray for salvation of Emery, Mitch and Kenzie who are seeking to know Jesus. She meets with four juniors who have been doing discipleship class since freshmen.
