Other Announcements

Supporting our Healthcare Workers and Teachers/Educators: This year has been extremely difficult. The year 2020 has left many of us exhausted, isolated, and at times frustrated. COVID-19 has left a wake of sorrow and pain throughout our world, nation and community. During these difficult times we all need encouragement and uplifting. Even so, there are two groups of people within our church and community who have been especially hit hard in their vocational callings: frontline healthcare workers and teachers/educators.

If you fall into either of these categories, we would like to invite you to join an online devotional support group.

There will be two distinct groups: one for healthcare workers and the other for teachers/educators. We will utilize a closed Facebook group for you to have a safe space to share your struggles, find support and encouragement and discover spiritual care through devotional exercise.

This invitation is for more than just members of Inman First Baptist Church, but is open to any of your colleagues you would like to invite.

If you would like to join either of these groups, please contact Jeremiah Childers at jchilders@ifbc.net or contact the church office at 864-472-9069.
