Commissioning I

True turnabout awaits you

Christian Laity Foundation

What is happening now is an advance on the Foundation you are to found. Realistically, the savage base of the human spirit denies propriety to followers of any meaningful basis. Skills in the area of carnal abuse must be modified to include care giving on a personal basis. What we behold is a misrepresentation of Christian thought legitimatised by foundations that swerve off course. Throughout history reconciliation is the factor that blinds man to the true needs of a Christian follower. Mark the course that must be followed with resolve to forfeit angst that emerges from threat of death. Renege is the character of followers on the issue. What is required is the founding of an organization that ameliorates the tendency of man to catastrophize. (To) blunt attacks seem possible when believing in posterity of eternal life. Withhold not this opportunity for man to recover his true specie as the Son of God made man (in the) mien of the Father's approach. Withhold not the specie which I administer for salvation of the world. Take heart for your turn has come to minister peace of mind to the multitudes who seek and cannot find. In habit and ware proselytize the love of God for His children.

Commissioning II

Asunder placed Christian elements despite efforts of sons to reconcile Masked the elements of domicile pacific midst factions warring amongst each other Trumped the site of inner peace when no man's land expels invaders of causes opposite Fulfillment of goal negated by service rendered by quest of hearts for enemies without that quench flames of light of truth Inner cause depicted not for surcease of elements denying opportunity for rights of passage Healers squandered in revenues gathered from faithful flock that meets not needs of Christ's followers sacrificed to service of His word Proceed to main line churches flagellating truth's emerge with exercises moribund stultifying growth of harmony required to carry out My word Lean upon standard practiced by Me in healing children of wayward paths

Epilogue

You have been chosen to subvert the ways of the world clandestine that mock My kingdom in frightful fashion To you belong the skills that reach out to loyalty undermined by surreptitious thoughts inveighing defiance of Creation proper Make known the devotion of God the Father to children Mine regaling in false premises that seed not the forwarding of Creation principles Let be known the right of return to safety assured in lands that caress the hearts of devoted subjects wiling away in swill of consciousness corrupt Take heart in knowledge that success be yours in woebegone world of undertakings valueless Seek shelter beneath My wings of tidings comforting resilient to resistance of man cowered in fear of My declarations

Look not askance from path of glory that provides all answers to wayward sons rewarding them for steps recovering site removing stains of worship of idols of own making Resilient thee be in epilogue of life containing fluids of reunion interspersed with Mine awaiting transfer to life transfigured in heavenly sphere Mark My ways of appeal to children Mine that they might see wondrous world awaiting salvation of hearts denied remuneration in land of living hell Proceed My love to tell tale of healing yours relaying message of salvation principles available to all who submit Locked into Me be thee in ventures Mine safely bestowed upon thy brow for fulfillment of kingdom seeds Be thee so assured beloved be thee so assured thy will be done in concert with Mine No end be there to love of ours extended to holy family of My making
