PASTOR'S HEART

Welcome to Auburn! Today we continue an emphasis on stewardship called "Be an Encourager: Tithe". This past Sunday night we highlighted many of the missions and ministries that the resources you give each week supports. Tonight we will look at individual ministries and how the Lord is working through them.

Once again, I'm very thankful for the individuals who serve on our Stewardship Team. Their commitment to prayer, stewardship and support of the church vision is evident. The members of that team are Inita McMullan (chairman), Clark Tucker, Bart Bevill, Pam Fair, Pete Malone and Cindy Black.

This emphasis will culminate on August 19th with a 'Prove the Tithe' offering and a stewardship celebration meal. In short, our stewardship team along with our church leadership is evaluating what our giving capacity is as a church to make future plans. Those plans could include adding space, ministry and mission partnerships around the world, additional staff positions and other things that are driven by stewardship resourcefulness.

I think it is wise to share what this emphasis is not. It is not a fund-raising campaign. It is not a commitment card or pledge commitment. It is not a guilt driven agenda. It is not a reaction because the church is in financial strains.

It is also wise to share what this emphasis is. It is an encouragement. It is a joyful celebration of what God is doing in His church at Auburn. It is a picture and evaluation of what we can do for the glory of God as we work together. I am grateful to be a part of a faithful and generous church like Auburn.

We ask you to prayerfully enjoy this journey together with us.

Your pastor and friend...

Jimmy Henry
