PASTOR'S HEART

This week we have rolled in a new year. The last year of the 2nd decade since Y2K. That statement causes me to reflect on time. Time is precious and time never stops. Each of us are given a certain amount of time. James reminded us that it is like vapor in life, here today and gone tomorrow. May we all make the most of our time in 2019. As we do, remember the eternal things that have lasting impact.

Today, I will begin a new message series entitled "Repurposed". A lot of things in this world are being repurposed. It's a term we have become familiar with as it relates to cars, wood, clothes, furniture and on and on. Throughout the upcoming weeks, we will hear testimony from people who have experience in repurposing something that could have easily been discarded. We'll explore God's Word and see steps of restoration and Biblical examples we can identify with.

Let's make 2019 the best year yet by knowing Jesus and making Him known to our world!

Your pastor and friend...

Jimmy Henry
