PASTOR'S HEART

Welcome to Auburn. Today we continue our message series entitled Repurposed. Today's sermon focuses on Samson in the book of Judges, "Seeing Beyond Our Failure". The truth for all of us is that at some point in our life we have failed. While some failures are big, and some are small. Some are public and some are private. Some hurt others and some simply hurt us. Jesus has made a way for restoration to take place. A successful Christ follower is not the person who has failed, but the one who when they fail, gets back up and goes on for the Lord. There is power in Jesus name to Repurpose and heart that has lost its heavenly purpose.

Tonight, at our 5:30 pm service we will host some guest during the pm services from a ministry in Mexico. Tim Fleming, who has many family connects to our area, will be with us with some friends and family to share about a ministry partnership that local churches have been involved with in Mexico. Some of our very own will be joining a mission's team later in January to go. I'm excited to hear what God is doing through this ministry.

Parent's, I urge you to consider going ahead and registering for upcoming children and youth events like camps and Disciple Now. Not only does it allow you to put things on your calendar, but it also helps us prepare appropriately.

It's a joy to serve as your pastor at Auburn...

Jimmy Henry
