

These questions are provided for your further study and application of the message. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point. It is also helpful to discuss your answers with others.

LifeGroup Discussion

Date: May 7, 2017

Psalm 119:137-144

1. Read Psalm 34:8. How have you seen that the Lord is good? How are you encouraged to know that God gives us the opportunity to know him through experiencing his promises?
2. The psalmist tells us that God is right and his rules are right. How are these statements the same? How are they different? What does the first statement tell us about God's character?
3. Read Psalm 119:143. Trouble and anguish have visited the psalmist, but he takes refuge in the commandments of God. Why can we hide in God's commandments?
4. Verse 139 shows that living for the Lord can be hard. We can be worn down by honoring God in a sinful world. Have you experienced this kind of spiritual fatigue? How did you rest and refuel?
5. In Psalm 119:144, the psalmist praises God for his testimonies, but then prays, "Give me understanding that I may live." Why do we need God to grant understanding?
6. Read Proverbs 9:10. How does this verse about wisdom help you to better understand Psalm 119:137-144?
7. Family verse: Read and memorize Psalm 119:140. Talk about ways that you have tried God's Word and found it to be true and faithful.